

Our embroidery machine made of Barudan and Tajima with a total of 42 heads adds value to our products. Our computerised automated embroidery machines enable us to provide highly precise smaller letter designs, excellent trimming system with stable performance.

Our productivity and efficiency relies on efficient utilisation of machinery like embroidery one to boost the effective production management we have.